FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

NATIONAL PETROCHEMICAL & REFINERS ASSOCIATION HONORS COFFEYVILLE RESOURCES REFINING & MARKETING WITH INDUSTRY SAFETY AWARD

COFFEYVILLE, Kan. (May 17, 2006)—Coffeyville Resources Refining & Marketing, LLC announced that the company received recognition for its commitment to safety by the National Petrochemical & Refiners Association (NPRA) at its annual National Safety Conference.

The NPRA presented the Gold Award to the refinery for achieving a 42 percent reduction in the total recordable incident rate in 2005. The Company attributes the rate reduction to management and employees working together to increase safety awareness, as well as its ongoing investments in facility safety improvements.

“This award symbolizes Coffeyville Resources’ commitment to processes and operations that protect safety, health and the environment,” said Chief Executive Officer Jack Lipinski. “We applaud our employees, who have committed along with management to building a culture that always puts safety first.”

The NPRA Gold Award is awarded to those facilities which have achieved a 25% or greater reduction in the total recordable incidence rate with no workplace-related fatality of an employee or non-employee during the calendar year, as compared to the average total recordable incidence rates for the three previous calendar years. The award is based on records kept for employees in accordance with OSHA record keeping requirements.

NPRA President Bob Slaughter said, “Ensuring the safety of employees, contractors and communities in all industry endeavors is always the highest priority for NPRA members. The National Safety Conference (NSC) recognizes outstanding safety achievements and encourages best practices for the safety and well-being of employees, the public and the environment.”
